AN ALLEGED SLAVER IN CUSTODY. On Saturday last, says the Boston Courier of the 29th inst., at the old city of Salem, three men were taken into custody by the police of that place, having been seen in a seeluded spot called Pickering's Point, at South Salem, under called Pickering's Point, at South Salem, under circumstances indicating that they had buried which shews a sound condition. treasure there. The men were all Spaniards or Portuguese, one proving to be a cigar dealer in Boston, named DeMena, another stated to be his recently escaped from the custody of the U. S! After some explanation, the two Bostonians were released under a pledge that they would which has not yet been assented to by his antagappear at the subsequent examination of the onist, other party, who was detained and committed to jail. Telegraphic dispatches were interchanged with New York, and the stranger was decity, for examination in Boston. Strenuous efforts were made at Salem procure the release of the man supposed to be DeCosta, and it is believed that the buried money was removed on Saturday night by accomplices, said to be his supercargo and pilot. In this city, on Tuesday evening, DeMena produced the cash, $5,000 to release the stranger on bail, but on Wednesday morning delivered him up again, when the latter threatened to make a clean breast of the matter, and acknowledged that he was a slaver, and had the produce business on Blackstone street; and destrayed his vessel off cape Cod.

ANOTHER WHEELBARROW BET-A BUCHANAN GIRL LOST A BARREL OF SHAVINGS.—Some time ago a girl who lives in one of the best and richest families in this city, made a wager of a barrel of shavings with a man who does the chief grooming of horses at a certain stable, that Buchanan would carry New Hampshire. Last evening, without giving him previous intimation, she wheeled the barrel of shavings to his door, about an eighth of a mile. If the public had known of the event, doubtless the Amoskeag Veterans, the City Guards, and the whole fire Veterans, the City Guards, and the whole fire department, "without distinction of party," would have turned out to receive the girl with a barrel of shavings, a la State street, when Poore came with the apples. ALAS POOR YORICK! Not a word was heard as we counted the vote, Which Sam to his destiny hurried; But the Clerk of the Polls a certificate wrete, Which toldus he was to be buried.

We buried him just about eight at night, The earth with our brogans turning; By a Know-Nothing's dunous light. And the Sheriff's nose dimly burning.

No useless coffin enclosed his breast, We buried him just as we found him.

And he looked like a know Nothing taking his rest.

With his Heart-broken friends around him. But few and fierce were the oaths they said,

They and heree were the oaths they said.
They swore more in anger than sorrow;
But thought as they gazed on the face of the dead.
Of the bricks in their hats on the morrow. The victors may scoff at the spirit that's gone, At the oaths, grips and signs that betrayed him: But little he'll reck if they let him sleep on. In the grave where the Democrats laid him,

But half the count of the polls was done, When the friends of the dead were retiring: For they knew that the enemy had a big gun. And in triumph they would soon be firing. Slowly and sadly we burried him there, This notice his grave revealing; Here Samuel died of too great a share Of "intensely American feeling."

THE ELECTION IN CALIFORNIA. The following is the latest from California: At the hour of penning this, 4 o'clock, A M. We copy the following from the Cincinati Commercial of yesterday : The river rose nearly 1 foot yesterday. Altogeth-

There were five feet two inches and stationary at Pittsburg last night, and four feet and rising at Wheeling, with indications of rain. At this point it rained steadily nearly all day. At one time during the day we iness. The Cambridge and Belmont arrived yesterday from above—the latter from Pittsburgh. She reports the Shade, Big Hocking, Big Kanawha, Big Sandy, and in fact, all the tributaries, pouring out finely. We have no doubt, from all accounts, we will have enough water from here to the mouth, by the close of the present week, for our largest New Orleans boats. Kentucky river was high and rnunin; out strong yesterday. Licking took a fresh start during the afernoon, and gave us more water. We see by the New Orleans papers that the Eelipse and Natchez are running as opposition packets in the Vicksburg trade. Last Saturday week they left New Orleans together, both advertised to start at the same hour. On the down trips they had good cargoes, the Eclipse had 4,000 bales of cotton and the Natchez 2,000

XXXIVTH CONGRESS-THIRD SESSION.

TUESDAY'S PROCEEDINGS. WASHINGTON, Dec. 2. SENATE.—The message was received and read when, during an incidental debate on printing it and the accompanying documents, Mr. Hale attacked the position of the President, denying alogether the charge, which he imputed to a maority of the people of eleven States, of a waut counted forty steamers in port all ready for bus- of the Union. It was untrue that they sought of fidelity to constitutional obligations and love to usurp the power of the Government. Mr. Brown thanked the President for his fidelity in sounding a warning against sectional ers of Fremont with the intention of abolishing slavery everywhere, and in this connection alluded to the views of Messers. Seward and Wil-This called up Mr. Seward who remarked that what he had said on that subject was not in a corner and referred Mr. Browm for further inormation to Redfield's publication of his speech.

Mr. Wilson stated that he had never entertained nor expressed the opinion that Congress had power to abolish slavery within the States, nor had he uttered the sentiment that those with whom he acted intended to assume or exercise Mr. Mason maintained that the constant agita f slavery brought the people of the South to the conviction that the preservation of that instituion rested with themselves alone, and that if they avowed it would have led to a dissolution

Mr. Trumbull denied that the Republicans had any intention to interfere with slavery in the States. They had avowed the rights of the States, the union of the States and the constitution of the country must be preserved. He spiritedly controverted the President's remark that the Missouri compromise was absolute, being unconstitutional, saying there was no foundation for the assertion. Adjourned. The House wrs engaged on the subject of Mr Whitfield's admission as delegate from Kansas.

Williams's Anti-Dyspeptic Elixir S, with the utmost cofindence, offered to the Medical Faculty and the public, for the cure of Dyspepsia or Indigestion, and all diseases arising from it, such as Nansea, Headache, Vertigo, Dmness of Sight, Debility of the Nervous System, Hypochondria, Jaundice, Hypochondria, same Hypochondria, same Loss of Appetite, Wasting of the strength, Flatulence, with frequent belching of Wind, Vitiated taste, Vitiated taste, Vitiated taste, Constipation and uneasiness of the bowels, Filious Vomiting, Burning sensation at the pit of the stomach, Liver Complaint,

Sallowness of complexion,
Depression of spirits and irritability of temper, &c.
If a case of dyspepsia should be neglected, most serious effects may ensue, for it lays the foundation for, is the incipient cause of, and very frequently terminates in consumption I would impress upon the mind that to trifle with this disease, may be to sport with that reason which constitutes man super-eminent among animal beings, or to embitter existence by adding a consciousness of folly to the penalty of pain.

This medicine is prepared entirely from vegetable substances; the most delicate stomach can bear it conveniently, and it is given with periect safety, in minute doses to the most tender infants, its properties being of a strengthening and invigorating nature. It is neatly put up in bottles, with ample directions for use.

The following testimonials from some well known and respectable citizens of Philadelphia, are fully corroborative of the tried efficacy of the Anti Dyspeptic Elixir.

We, having used William's Anti-Dyspectic Elixir with the most perfect satisfaction and success, take great plea-sure in recommending it to all persons suffering with Dys-pepsia, as we are fully convinced of its most estimable qualities in restoring the digestive powers, removing all pain and uneasiness, and imparting a healthy tone to the tomach.

Williams's Anti-Dyspeptic Elixir.

Doctor James Williams:—For several years past, I have been liable to attacks of Dyspepsia; but never have I been more distressingly afflicted with its symptoms, than within the last few weeks. Indigestion, hervous irritability, despondency, a sense of weigat in the stomach, and severe pains in the left side, rendering me, for the time being, truly wretched. Fortunately, I was recommended by a friend to try your Elixir. I did so, and in less than two weeks, indigestion ceased; pain and ner rous depression left me, and appetite, with mental and bodily health, were fully restored. To me the cure seemed almost miraculous, and my object in writing to you s—a hope that other persons suffering the miseries of Dyspepsia with avail themselves of your efficient remedy.

I am, dear sir, yours truly,

In calling the attention of dealers in our line in this market, we would state that during the last six months our attention has been directed to getting up a large number of new Stove and Grate Patterns, which, added to our al ready large stock, gives us one of the most extensive and diversified assortments in the western market. Among the number, we would refer to our "Ashland Kentuckian' Cook Stove, (three sizes out.) These Stoves have great weight of metal, highly finished and elegant in appearance. They combine all the modern improvements that practical experience has developed.

We would invite dealers to call and examine. For themselves, and we think in quality, price, &c., they can be suited. Having enlarged our manufacturing department, we can promptly meet all demands. Thankful for the pat ronage which has been so kinkly bestowed upon us, we trust, by strict and prompt attention to all orders, to secure a continuance of it. And the quality of our manufactured work shall be, as heretwier, equal if not superior to the best, and satisfaction given in all casees.
